About the Event

Thompson Valley Tae Kwon Do is hosting the 2008 Western Canada Taekwon-Do Championships March 21-22, 2008 in Kamloops at the Tournament Capital Centre.

This event is a qualifying tournament for the Canadian National Championships. The tournament will attract 350 participants and over 200 non-participant visitors to Kamloops.

About Thompson Valley Taekwon-Do

Thompson Valley Taekwon-Do is the largest ITF-sanctioned school in the Central Interior. It includes facilities in Kamloops, Barriere, Simpcw, Logan Lake, Skeetchstn, Merritt, Kelowna, and Okanagan Falls.

The school is operated by Mr. Robert Gill, V degree Black Belt, International Instructor. Mr. Gill is the President of the ITF of BC. Some notable achievements of the school include:

- Hosted BC Provincial Championships five times
- Experienced continual growth within the Thompson-Okanagan, for a total of 150 students between the ages of four and 60

This Kamloops-based school teaches the original system of Taekwon-Do as created by founder General Choi Hong Hi of Korea.

Taekwon-Do is taught in a traditional and modern way which strengthens the body and the character of students who train at our schools throughout the central Interior. For all students Taekwon-Do promotes a strong and healthy body, a strong mental spirit and a way of life that creates a just and moral society. Our mission to build a more peaceful world and to be champions of freedom and justice is a commitment of everyone who trains with us.

This year is the International Taekwon-do Federation (ITF) Year of the Family. Confucius teaches that after working to improve ourselves we need to work to improve our family. Only then will we be ready to move on to helping others and improving society.
